

Interreg

Alpine Space

EUROPEAN UNION

GaYA

EUROPEAN REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT FUND

GAYA FILM FESTIVAL

MY ALPS – MY CHANCE

Send us your film clips to win an invitation for you and your friends to the GaYA Film Festival to be held from 30 November to 1 December 2018 in Chambéry, France

Are you a committed member of your community? Are you active in promoting training, sustainability, social or other matters in the Alps? Show us your world and what you have helped to decide or achieve. Film your project or activity and enter the GaYA film competition!

Send us your clips and, with a little bit of luck, receive an invitation to the GaYA Film Festival in Chambéry!

The 15 best film clips will be shown in Chambéry from 30 November to 1 December 2018 at the GaYA Film Festival "My Alps – My Chance" as part of the GaYA conference.

Your prize: a two-night stay with all travelling expenses covered and free admission to two days filled with fantastic events – and the chance to introduce yourself and speak to opinion leaders.

Enter now!

- ▶ You are between 16 and 25 years old
- ▶ You can make your film alone or with up to three persons (for example as a youth organisation, with your school or as part of your training, as a project group or with friends).
- ▶ Your life in the Alps: Where have you already helped to decide or achieve things? Where have you put a great idea into practice? What motivates you?

Closing date for applications:
31 May 2018

You can register and upload your clip here:
www.alpine-space.eu/gaya
For any further information please contact
Robin.Naumann@cipra.org.

The GaYA project aims to increase the quality of democratic processes in the Alpine space by enhancing the involvement of young people in regional governance and by developing new approaches for decision makers. It is a collaborative effort by partners from various countries.

Co-financed by:

